March 12, 1999

To whom it may concern,

Hanako Tanaka was a student in my homeroom class in the year 1998-99, in her third year at Heisei Senior High School. I was also her English teacher. Hanako was a creative student who showed great interest especially in oral activities in the classroom, and was always willing to share her ideas actively with her classmates.

Hanako had many friends in her homeroom class, as well as in her extra-curricular activities such as the movie club. She was the leader of the movie club, organizing the weekly activities of watching and critiquing Japanese and American movies.

Hanako is a very considerate person, always there to help people when they are in trouble. I also found her to be a very pleasant student, who always showed respect towards her teachers. I would be very happy to recommend Hanako Tanaka as a candidate for your school.

Yours sincerely,

Sakae Nagoya
